

Kindness

October is Breast Cancer Awareness month and emphasizes the importance of getting a mammogram.

It is also a time we celebrate our staff for their dedication and service in the fight against breast cancer.

As we navigate together through the changes of the world, please be kind to our staff.

We are here for you, helping to find cancers and save lives.

Thank you for coming in for your mammogram today!